PROGRAM NOTE

(To be printed alongside the Neverlands map.)

In this string quartet—my third and longest—I had it in mind to evoke places that have been the subject of human fantasy, but which we can never visit. The accompanying map charts a course through these “Neverlands,” comprising mythological places (II–III), the bad and good afterlives (V–VI), fictional dystopias (VIII–IX), and the roads between them (I, IV, & VII). Movement X depicts the homeward trek that brings every journey back to its point of departure.

—Kian Ravaei
